

Lion Dance at the Lytton B.C. Chinese History Museum Opening on May 13th:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=CNZaEsezJ8>

On the site of the old joss house in Lytton. Monks, lay ministers and congregation members of Lions Gate Priory were present and RM Kotev asperged the building at the opening ceremonies. Inside the building you can see the altar with the Kwan Yin statue.

The Lion Dance disperses evil influences and invites blessings on the building. The Lion dancers came from Vancouver.
