

Dear friends,

Here is the statue that has been donated for the joss house. It was rescued from a Vancouver yard sale in 1998 by a man, who was an artist and sculptor, and his Chinese wife. It is very old and obviously comes from a temple. The man's son is offering it in memory of his father.

Thank you for everything!

Regards,

Koten

Scroll down for image

